THE THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
NOVEMBER 17, 2024

Statement on Election Results and Upcoming Year of Hope

NOVEMBER 11, 2024 - DIOCESE OF TUCSON NEW OUTLOOK - CATHOLIC BISHOPS OF ARIZONA STATEMENT ON ELECTION RESULTS AND UPCOMING YEAR OF HOPE

We, the Catholic Bishops of Arizona, wish to congratulate those recently elected officials who have been chosen by the people for public office. We also wish to thank all those who served as candidates. Public service is a noble calling and at the very heart of our democracy and citizenship. With the conclusion of the recent elections, it is important to remember that we must always put our faith in God before all else and maintain a spirit of hope. While harmful Arizona ballot propositions relating to abortion and immigration were unfortunately approved by voters this November, we need to be steadfast in our commitment to life and remain confident in God's love.

It is in this light that the Catholic Bishops of Arizona would like to focus on the Jubilee Year of Hope that Pope Francis has proclaimed for 2025. Specifically, Pope Francis has proclaimed "10 Hopes" that we encourage the faithful to consider during this time: hope for peace over division, hope for enthusiasm for life and readiness to share it, hope for the openness to life and responsible parenthood, hope for prisoners through restorative justice, hope for the sick and those dedicated to their care, hope for youth and young adults, hope for migrants and refugees, hope for the elderly, hope for the poor and the hungry and hope for greater Christian unity.

The Jubilee Year of Hope carries several opportunities for a plenary indulgence, beginning with visiting the holy doors in Rome. Additionally, each of our dioceses will be announcing more information soon about opportunities to participate locally in the Jubilee Year.

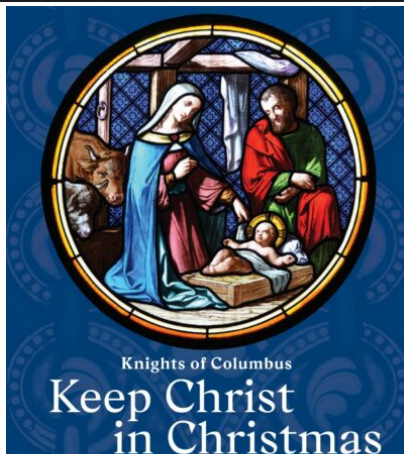

We encourage participation in these unique opportunities for much needed grace and pray that we never lose hope!

Prayer for those who are Cloistered

Father God, Light in the darkness, You are the true vine, and we are Your humble branches. We thank You that in love, You sent Jesus to give us life and life in abundance. God, we pray for all those who live the cloistered life that they experience a love and deep joy that persists through all circumstances. Smile on them and give them Your peace. Indwell Your Holy Spirit within them and fill their days with wonder at Your goodness to them. Bring them joy at sharing in the inheritance of Your holy people in Your kingdom of light. Amen.

Oración por los que están enclaustrados

Padre Dios, Luz en la oscuridad, Tú eres la vid verdadera y nosotros somos Tus humildes sarmientos. Te damos gracias porque, en tu amor, enviaste a Jesús para darnos vida y vida en abundancia. Dios, oramos por todos aquellos que viven la vida de clausura para que experimenten un amor y una alegría profunda que persista en todas las circunstancias. Sonríeles y dales Tu paz. Haz que Tu Espíritu Santo more en ellos y llena sus días de asombro por Tu bondad hacia ellos. Dale alegría al compartir la herencia de Tu pueblo santo en Tu reino de luz. Amén.

Cloistered Life

The cloistered or contemplative life is a noble calling to peaceful silence within a Christian community. The Church recognizes that cloistered religious play an essential role in the work of evangelization through their prayer, sacrifice and witness.

Contemplative prayer is about a profound contact with God Himself, Who dwells within each baptized soul. This "contact" happens on the deepest level of our being through faith and docility to the Holy Spirit. Living in a cloister allows someone to be hyper focused on the stirrings of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus lived 30 years of his human life hidden and unknown to most of the world. In those years of obscurity, far from wasting his time, He was already working the world's salvation. Those living the cloistered life also live a hidden life at work praying and sacrificing for our sanctification. Please hold them in your prayers, too!
